27TH NOVEMBER 2018

EVERY CHILD SUCCEEDING IN AN ENCOURAGING AND STIMULATING ENVIRONMENT

Tena Koutou

WEARABLE ARTS EVENT

Our wearable arts event will take place this evening between 6pm and 7pm here at school. The children in Tui, Takahe and Kea have been busy in class creating wearable arts magic to share with you. In the meantime, children in Piwakawaka and Kereru have made great scarecrows to share and will be performing for you.

The weather is looking good for this evening. Please bring a camp chair or picnic blanket to sit on for the performance. Children sharing their wearable arts need to be at school for 5.30pm so that they can get ready. Children in Piwakawaka and Kereru need to come to school dressed as scarecrows.

I am very much looking forward to this event, which is open for parents, grandparents and friends to attend.

Have a great week.

School Accounts

Most of you will have received final stationery accounts for the year. Please ensure these are paid before the end of term. Thanks.

Book Amnesty!

It's time to go on a book hunt! They hide everywhere don't they? Under beds, in toy boxes, on the bedroom floor, under the couch, in the boat, on your own bookshelves etc. Any reader or library books need to be returned to school now. I will award a PUKEKO POINT for each book returned.

Children's Art Work And Hamper

Children from Takahe and Kereru have been painting on canvas! These paintings will be on display at the Christmas Night Market at the Ranfurly Hall on Thursday 29th November to be sold in a silent auction. Proceeds will go to the school. Thanks to Odette and Donna Wech for organising this for us.

If you have any items to donate for a hamper for the Christmas Night Market, please drop them off at the school office.

Piano Lessons at School

I have been approached by several parents regarding the feasibility of holding piano lessons at school. I have spoken with Ana Williamson, a piano teacher, who is happy to come out to school to take lessons. We do need to source a good piano before the lessons can proceed, however, I would like to gauge interest in piano lessons here at school. If you are keen, please get in touch. You would pay Ana directly for the lessons. Ana comes highly recommended by Todd Wilkin and Christine Walker.

- School will close at 12.30pm on Tuesday 18th December

Kea and Takahe Camp 2019

We have an approximate cost for the Kea and Takahe Camp 2019, which will be fully catered and run by experts. The approximate cost will be in the region of $150 per pupil. This will also cover the cost of transport to camp by bus. I hope that by giving plenty of notice, the children will be able to do some fundraising to add to the funds they have already raised at our Show Day.
